

Perkins County High School had four medalists at the state speech competition on March 27-28. Those bringing home medals were, from left to right, Alyssa Young, fourth in poetry; Jakelynn Broeder, fourth in persuasive speaking; Lila Konecky, sixth in serious interpretation and Samantha Snogren, sixth in entertainment. Other results from state speech include Rebecca Cornelius finishing 13th in informative and Hannah Beck 16th; Allison Kiolbasa finishing 17th in entertainment and Brady Mailand 15th in humorous prose and Lexi Schmidt was 18th. In serious prose Kylie Hanson was 13th and Sean Sando and Renae Goodwin were 15th in duet acting with Hanson, Sando, Bailey Schrotberger, Snogren and Kaleb Vak 14th in OID. PCHS finished fifth overall in the state. (Photo by Tim Linscott)